

Secret Stocks Of Food Found In Jap Camps; Report Waste

Los Angeles, June 17 (AP)—Testimony of secret hoards of food stocks, some of which he said he believed had been traded by Japanese for whisky and chickens, was given a Dies congressional sub-committee by a former employe of the Heart Mountain Relocation center in Wyoming.

Earl A. Best, a wounded veteran of Dunkerque who said his son, Clifford, was killed in Africa last January, told the committee yesterday he was sent to Heart Mountain last December as an associate steward after having served for a time as chief steward at the Poston, Ariz., relocation center.

Atties Filled
During a month-long inventory of food at the Heart Mountain camp, Best said, he found 36 of the center's 42 kitchens had supplies hidden in their attics.

In one of them, he declared, a Japanese cook showed him secret pantries reached by sliding doors in the kitchen walls, one of them about five by 15 feet in size and piled to the ceiling with foodstuffs.

In another mess hall the Japanese had built a stage and the space beneath it was packed with canned goods, Best said. He notified the project director about the secret stores, he added, but no action was taken.

Tomatoes for Five Years
"At one time while I was there, there were 10,000 gallons of mayonnaise, when they were using only 600 gallons a month," Best testified. "Much of this supply had gone back to oil."

"There was a 65-month's supply of corn meal. There was a five-year supply of canned tomatoes, at the rate they were using them, but on the ration point system there was enough for eight years."

"On one occasion there were 600 or 700 pounds of lard in each kitchen. Then 42 steel drums of lard arrived, each weighing 300 pounds. There was no place to put it, so I was instructed to send it to the already amply supplied kitchens. The Jap cooks would make large batches of doughnuts, use the lard once and then throw it away."

Hams for Whisky
Expressing the belief that "it was a case of their wanting to steal it and trade it for whisky and other things," Best declared he had heard from Japanese at the camp that a chef was trading hams for whisky with Japanese soldiers from the United States Army who visited the camp on furlough.

He said the garbage collector was selling chickens to the Japanese and that many of the kitchens had as much as 200 to 300 pounds of chickens on hand. No money was ever seen to change hands in such transactions, Best added.

BANKERS URGED TO SEEK PROBE OF U.S. BUREAU

Adams county's bankers were advised Wednesday evening to seek a congressional investigation of the "whole infernal banking department" of the federal government in a fight to "maintain their independence and integrity."

The suggestion was advanced by Leighton C. Taylor, of Bendersville, for many years a practicing attorney in Washington and secretary to the late U. S. Senator Boise Penrose, of Pennsylvania, in an address before the June dinner-meeting of the Adams County Bankers' Association at the Fruit Growers' hall, Bendersville, Wednesday evening.

Mr. Taylor made the suggestion at the close of a survey of "encroachments of federal bureaucracy upon the liberties of the American people and particularly of attempts by bureaus to force banks into an unusual condition through the forced amortization of loans and the setting up of competing agencies."

Opposition Grows
Members of the association pointed out that "a backfire of opposition to competition by government agencies and oppressive federal supervision is growing among bankers in Pennsylvania and in other states." One banker stated that a number of state organizations of bankers, have been developing plans to fight the encroachments.

"It would be tragic if we destroy totalitarianism abroad and at the same time allow it to develop here," Mr. Taylor said. "The unit system of banking is worth fighting for. You will never get to first base fooling with bureaucrats who never were elected to any office and who think only of the appointive power."

Ask Full Probe
"The consuming ambition of every member of Congress is to be returned to office. Only by showing Congress that you are in arms about the encroachments of the federal bureaucrats will you be able to get anywhere."

"The thing to do in my opinion as a former secretary of the Senate committee of finance and other Congressional committees is to meet with the committees of banking and currency in the senate and house to secure a resolution from congress asking that the bankers be given a hearing by the senate and house committees on banking and currency and then to present your case so convincingly that the banking committees will ask congress for an investigation of the whole infernal banking department."

Bankers' Record
Earlier in his address Mr. Taylor had pointed out that "Bankers are proud of their war record, and rightly so. The handling of ration stamps, sale of war bonds, loss of trained personnel to the armed forces, liquidation of loans because of high national income, heavy purchases of government securities have all been conditions which the banks have met cheerfully and they have done a good job of solving war problems."

"The result of liquidation of loans by individuals and the replacing of those loans by low interest bearing government securities has been to greatly increase bank liquidation and to seriously curtail bank earnings. At the same time that income is shrinking, operating costs and taxes are increasing, thus further aggravating the situation."

Scores Appraisals
"All of these problems can be met by various adjustments, such as the reduction of interest rates. In other words the dislocations caused by the war are temporary, and are being met."

"However, another and apparently (Please Turn to Page 6)

GABRIO HEADS GAR OF STATE

The Rev. Luther B. Hafer, of Taneytown, formerly of Gettysburg and a member of the Sons of Union Veterans camps here, installed Alfred W. Gabrio, 91-year-old Civil war veteran as Pennsylvania department commander of the GAR in York, Wednesday night.

The 77th annual encampment of the Pennsylvania Department of the Grand Army of the Republic—in reality a one-man session—ended today with the installation of officers to serve the ensuing year.

Mr. Gabrio, Hazleton, the lone member of the organization attending this year's encampment, yesterday declared vacant the office of department commander held by Joseph L. Chapman, Scranton. Department Comm. Gabrio today is considering appointing a younger member of the GAR as senior vice commander.

Mrs. Alvena Scott, daughter of the new department commander, will act as his secretary.

Bishop To Preside At Sunday Service

The fourth annual all-day program of the Bethel Mennonite congregation will be held at the Union church, Mummaburg, Sunday. The morning session, beginning at 9:15 o'clock, will be opened by Bishop George S. Keener, Hagerstown. The speakers will be the Rev. W. A. Keeney, Gettysburg, and the Rev. John F. Grove, Greencastle. The Rev. Mr. Grove and the Rev. Mr. Keeney will also be the principal speakers for the afternoon session beginning at 1:15 o'clock, and the evening session beginning at 7 o'clock.

The moderator will be Forrest Kanagy, secretary; Miriam Musselman, and chorists, John A. Weaver and Charles Boyer.

The public is invited.

WILL ENFORCE PARKING RULE

Burgess Fred G. Pfeffer today warned that abuse of the freedom to double park allowed by town authorities because of war-time conditions has forced a reversal to absolute enforcement of the borough statutes on the matter.

"There has always been an ordinance against double parking," the burgess declared, "but due to the war conditions the town has not been enforcing its ordinance during the last several months."

"However, a large number of complaints have been received including several stating that car owners parked in regular spaces have had to wait up to a half hour before they could get out of the space because someone had double parked and had been gone for that length of time after locking his car."

"Because of those abuses of the extra privilege, the borough has been forced to ask the police department to enforce strictly the double parking regulations."

JUDGE RENAMED TO STATE BOARD

Judge W. C. Sheely has been re-elected a member of the executive committee of the Board of Public Charities Service at a meeting of the committee at Philadelphia, it was learned today.

The term will mark the second year the judge has been a member of the executive group.

The state association is designed to coordinate the work of various institutions and takes an active part in state legislation concerning juvenile court work, public assistance, civil service and the like.

It comprises a number of county Public Charities Association groups similar to the one established in Adams county two years ago. The group devotes most of its time to public education regarding proposed state legislation concerning public charity and similar work.

TO TRAIN FIRE TRUCK DRIVERS

Faced with a serious shortage of trained fire truck drivers and pump operators, the Gettysburg fire company will begin this evening the process of training at least four new drivers, it was announced today by Fire Chief James A. Aumen.

Aumen said eight men who formerly were on call as fire truck operators now have left the community for war work or duty with the armed forces or are working out of town and are not usually available for emergency duty. Only two firemen remain who are considered experienced while a third can be called if a serious emergency arises, Aumen said.

The company will take two pumpers to the brickyard pond this evening for a fire drill and operating instructions, the chief said. Members of the company are asked to report at the engine house at 6:45 o'clock.

Weekly fire drills were discontinued several weeks ago to conserve gasoline but the fire chief and other company officers said today they feel that the driver shortage is so serious that steps must be taken immediately to meet it.

LOCAL SOLDIER HELPED SAVE 3 LOST AVIATORS

Pvt. George R. Martin, Jr., 24, eldest son of Mr. and Mrs. George R. Martin, West High street, was instrumental in saving the lives of the three Canadian flyers whose account of "fourteen days of hell on a Greenland icecap" has become familiar to thousands through wide newspaper and magazine publicity.

Young Martin's part in the rescue of the stranded flyers who lived through a week of 40 below zero weather is revealed in a letter his parents received this week.

He wrote in part: "I suppose you've read all about the escapee those fellows had on the Greenland ice cap. Well, I'm probably not allowed to tell you this, but if I'm not they can cut it out."

"Felt Pretty Good"

"I happened to be the first person to get the SOS from that plane, so it made me feel pretty good to learn that they had all gotten off okay. It's a small thing compared to all those boys went through, but someone has to make the rescue possible and I happened to be the one. Will tell you all about it when I get back."

An account of the experiences of the stranded flyers that appears in the June issue of "The Readers' Digest" tells of the sending of the SOS message that Martin picked up and answered with the result that planes and a Coast Guard cutter accomplished the rescue of the trio. They travelled more than 15 miles across the crevasse-marked ice floe in heavy fog, rains, high winds and temperatures that frequently dropped far below zero.

42-Inch Cod

Pvt. Martin, who is an alumnus of Gettysburg high school in the class of 1937 and who was assistant manager of a Philadelphia shoe store when he entered the service, had been at northern island posts since last September and now is in Greenland on radio duty. He is hoping to get back to the states for a visit by next fall.

Martin writes that he is very busy but had time "the other night to go fishing. I caught one really big cod. He weighed almost 15 pounds and measured 42 inches long—the longest one caught here yet. They're starting to come in now and fishing should really be good from now on. I only wish I had more time to fish. They certainly are good eaters."

In an earlier letter Martin told about a skiing experience when he and several companions were streaking down a snow-covered mountain side. Martin lost control and tumbled into a 40-foot snow drift. Companions noted the spot at which he had disappeared and dug the snow away in time to save him from suffocation.

The other club officers have been filled as follows: First vice president, Richard O. Riggs; second vice president, Dr. Burnell Grim; third vice president, Lysle V. Anderson; secretary-treasurer, M. Edwin Webb; lion tamer, Archie D. Himes; tail twister, Cletus E. Mummert; and directors, Dr. Eugene Elgin, Paul P. Lerew, W. Denton Myers and Luther Yohe.

Driving To Summer Homes And Victory Gardens Not Permitted

Travel to summer homes for vacation purposes is taboo under the pleasure driving ban, David M. Klinedinst, chief rationing attorney in the Harrisburg District OPA office declared today.

The only permissible trip to a summer home is where there is proof that it is necessary to close it for the season in order to prevent imminent damage to property and where there is absence of alternative means of transportation. In a great majority of cases, even where the driver's services are necessary at the summer home for the purposes of closing it, there exists other means of transportation, Attorney Klinedinst states.

Also, it is not permissible to drive an automobile to a summer home on basic rations to make repairs or for the purpose of keeping the car there to obtain necessary supplies.

Persons caught driving to summer homes for vacation stays are sub-

H. M. Hartman, Jr., Is Made Captain

Henry M. Hartman, Jr., son of Dr. and Mrs. H. M. Hartman, Springs avenue, has been promoted to the rank of captain. He is home on a 20-day furlough before reporting for duty at Fort McClellan, Alabama. Mrs. Hartman accompanied him to Gettysburg.

A graduate of Gettysburg college in the class of 1938, Captain Hartman has been on duty at various Caribbean bases for the last two and a half years. He is attached to the infantry.

Here And There News Collected At Random

The ban on pleasure-driving has not interfered with Dr. C. H. Heldt's golfing even though he refuses to use his automobile to transport him to the Caledonia Golf course some fourteen miles west of Gettysburg. "If pleasure-driving interferes with the successful promotion of the war there'll be no pleasure-driving in my car . . . but I've just got to get in a little golfing," said the local osteopath.

With a little ingenuity "Doc" got in some golfing on his regular Thursday afternoon holiday but in doing so he learned several things.

When "Doc" closed his office last Thursday noon he donned golf clothes, boarded a 12:20 p. m. bus and rode to Graeffenburg. There he got his clubs and thoroughly enjoyed 27 holes over the sporty mountain course . . . all alone, except for his caddy. When he finished he learned that the next bus to Gettysburg was not due until 8 o'clock that evening so "Doc" decided to walk and at the same time try to "hitch-hike" a ride.

There were few cars on the highway and those few passed him like a pay-car passes a tramp. At the top of Newman's hill "Doc" thought the hoofing would be easier downhill. But he soon learned differently. "Why, I had to put on the brakes at every step," he said. "You know that's a steep hill and I got a pretty good idea of how tough it must be for our infantrymen."

Three miles from the course
"Doc" spotted a close friend of his approaching in a car. He stopped at the side of the road and as the car neared him "Doc" raised his arm in signal for a ride "but I neglected to swing the old thumb as the regular hitch-hikers do, and that fellow just whizzed by me," he reported. By that time "Doc" was pretty leg-weary and almost decided to park at the side of the road until someone did offer to give him a lift, but he thought he'd try to make it to Cashtown.

Several carloads of defense workers passed him and "Doc" thought he recognized other friends of his but his "signaling" brought no results. Finally a large moving van approached and "Doc" tried "thumbing." The van stopped and the local golfer got a lift home.

"Doc" said he learned these things:

The infantry is a tough branch of the service and it takes good men to keep pace.

The pleasure-driving ban is pretty well observed because he saw very few cars on the highway.

If you want to hitch-hike "thumb" was to use the old "You've got to even your best friends will pass you by."

"But I'm going to try it again this afternoon," said Doc, "and I'm hoping for better luck this time."

ASKS PROMPT RETURN OF OIL APPLICATIONS

Only occupants of oil heated homes who act promptly in returning applications for next year's fuel oil rations to their War Price and Rationing board will benefit fully from plans to assure them adequate supplies in their fuel tanks before winter sets in, Fred G. Pfeffer, chairman of the local War Price and Rationing board, declared today.

The board has made special arrangements for renewing heating oil rations before July 1 to enable householders to get deliveries weeks, even months, in advance of cold weather, said Mr. Pfeffer. But this cannot be accomplished, he warned, unless consumers fill out their forms at once and mail them back to the board.

The application forms were mailed to consumers Wednesday. The application form, one of the simplest to be used by OPA, contains only five questions, all of which can be answered easily in a few minutes. Cooperation of the public in getting the application in quickly will be of inestimable value to the board in getting new coupon sheets issued during June, the chairman said.

Should Save "Reserves"

In order to make early tank fill-ups possible, the OPA has made about one-third of the coupons in each consumer's ration valid on July 1, even though last year's heating period system will be continued in modified form.

Mr. Pfeffer pointed out that ration holders in filling their tanks this summer should use their Period 1 coupons together with any Period 5 coupons remaining from the present ration. Household with large storage facilities may also draw upon their "reserve" coupons on the new sheets. Otherwise these "reserve" coupons, which will be valid through the year, should be held as a cushion for use later in the winter.

Mr. Pfeffer emphasized that any oil purchased this summer by a consumer with new coupons is a part of his ration for next year—October 1, 1943 to September 30, 1944. It should not be consumed for hot water or other purposes during this summer.

Washington, June 17 (AP)—In one of the great air battles of the Pacific, American planes shot down 77 Japanese aircraft over Guadalcanal island Wednesday while losing six of their own number, the Navy announced today.

Never before had the enemy's air losses in the Guadalcanal area been so heavy. The 77 total was almost exactly twice that of the Japanese losses last April 7 when 39 enemy craft were destroyed during a single raid.

Navy communiques said:

"South Pacific:

32 Bombers, 45 Fighters
"1. A brief report received from the South Pacific reveals that in an air battle over Guadalcanal island on June 16, United States planes shot down 32 Japanese bombers and 45 Zero fighters. Six United States planes are missing.

"2. No further details have been received."

The description of the American planes as "missing," suggested that some of them, or at least some of their pilots, might turn up later.

Best Score Of War

The 13 to 1 score turned in by American combat fliers in the Solomons, who have in the past included Army, Navy and Marine pilots, was one of the best, possibly the best, ever recorded in a single action.

In the action of April 7 the Japanese attacked shipping at Guadalcanal with 98 planes, including 50 bombers, and while they lost 39, American losses were three ships and seven planes. Only two American pilots failed to return from their crashed craft, however.

Earlier Raid Costly

The latest raid in the Guadalcanal area prior to Wednesday's action was on last Saturday when the Japanese sent a force of 40 to 50 fighter planes into the vicinity of the Russell islands, American air base territory lying immediately north of Guadalcanal. Their move then appeared to be aimed at winning aerial supremacy by overwhelming American fighter planes forces and driving them from the skies, thereby laying American ground installations open to a smothering assault. As it turned out the Japanese had 25 planes definitely shot down and eight probably. American losses were six planes and two pilots.

BONNET POINTS WAY TO UNITED FRENCH EFFORT

(While DeWitt MacKenzie is on vacation, this daily column is being written by Max Hill, former chief of The Associated Press bureau in Tokyo.)

By MAX HILL

At least one member of the newly formed French committee of national liberation has had the common sense to strip the organization of its political implications and get down to what he thinks is the basic purpose—a united France.

It is unfortunate that the chief protagonists, Generals De Gaulle and Giraud, cannot be as objective and end their cautious sparring for position, since so much is at stake for all of us.

"The question as to whether one is a Giraudist or a De Gaulle is not important," Henri Bonnet, who is minister of information in the committee, said in a recent interview. "We have been appointed as a unit for France, and we will serve as such."

M. Bonnet is now enroute to Algiers, but it remains to be seen what effect his reasonable attitude will have on the two men whose cooperation is so necessary for a successful committee.

Funds From British

Only yesterday those concerned more with the welfare of France than anything else found themselves blocked once again when a luncheon at which Giraud and De Gaulle were to confer was cancelled. It should be quite obvious they just didn't care to meet at this time, although the reason given by Giraud's representative was that he had another appointment. De Gaulle said nothing.

The current impasse, which stems back to the pre-war period and France's antiquated and complex political structure for its beginning, is made more complicated by the comparative financial positions of De Gaulle and Giraud.

On the one hand, De Gaulle gets virtually all of his funds from the British. As an indication of what is being thought of the existing muddle in at least some influential British quarters it is only necessary to read a few newspaper editorials. The Yorkshire Post describes De Gaulle as stubborn, while the London Daily Express hopes the generals will quit fighting among themselves and "help us get on with the winning of the war."

De Gaulle's Record

The Daily Sketch is a step ahead of the others and accuses De Gaulle of being "over dictatorial" and "non-cooperative." A tightening of the purse strings by the British might send De Gaulle scurrying for cover and a compromise session.

On the other hand, Giraud not only has money, but he also has supplies, such as oil and peanuts and wine and plenty of mutton, to trade with the United Nations for the necessary weapons of war. Besides, he has sent a substantial sum of money in gold to the United States.

It must be said for De Gaulle, whatever his attitude in the present situation may be, that he has worked and fought hard for France from the day she became a puppet of the Nazis. First he organized the French National Committee, then the Fighting French, and now of course he is a leader in the joint committee. This may not justify, however, his determination to eliminate all Frenchmen who ever had any contact with Vichy, nor his evident desire to rule in his own way.

Hands Off Policy

Regardless of what turn the joint committee squabble takes, it will be the American general, Dwight D. Eisenhower, who has the final say—if he so wishes. Africa will remain the province of the commanding general of the United Nations armies for a long time to come, and the French can't move without consulting him first.

That means the British also have the right to approve—or disapprove—of any suggestions made, since it is a joint command.

However, until now the Eisenhower policy, and there is no indication of a change, has been to take a strictly hands off attitude on any question involving the French which does not touch on military security. There isn't much chance, therefore, that the situation will get out of control with such an arbitrary checkrein ready at a moment's notice.

FATHER'S DAY SERVICE

A special service in observance of Father's Day will be held in the Fairfield Mennonite church Sunday morning, at 11 o'clock. The theme of the service will be "The Christian Family." Shelly, will relate a story for the children entitled "God Bless Grandfather." He will also preach on the theme "The Christian Family."

Skilled Workers Found In Plant

York, Pa., June 17 (AP)—The York Ice Machinery corporation, which like most industries needs new skilled employees these days, is finding them—within its own walls.

President S. E. Lauer said a "hidden reserve" of hundreds of workers skilled in more jobs than one was uncovered in a private survey, and that by utilizing secondary skills outside hiring has been reduced "to a minimum."

"All new employees now list their secondary skills as soon as they join the company," Lauer said, adding that many "average industrial workers" were skilled in four or five jobs.

"Within a few hours men working at such varied jobs as truck driving, welding and painting may become machine tool operators, assemblers and testers for as long as needed," he said.

BLOW-UP IN OWI OFFICES IS PREDICTED

Washington, June 17 (AP)—Look for a major personnel blow-up in the Office of War Information (O.W.I.) soon—involving Director Elmer Davis, one of his top executives and maybe even the White House.

That was the word today from "D. C. Speaker," strictly unofficial but well-informed District of Columbia news source.

"Ironically," said D. C., the mythical capital spokesman who represents authentic but unquotable sources, "the row is coming to a climax right after a speech by Davis in which he inferentially decried giving too much attention to personal squabbles in our war agencies."

(At Boston, Monday, Mr. Davis suggested that reporters at Washington might be making too much of the various capital controversies.)

Personal Row

"What's cooking now?" Speaker added, "is between Davis himself and one of his best-known aides—a man who has been regarded in the past as mighty close to the White House."

"Davis, who will take on anybody when he thinks he's right, is seeking the man's resignation, and the individual concerned—likewise a strong character—is reported to have elected to fight it out right to the top."

"Some people have been saying," Speaker went on, "that OWI has been losing a little of its grip over some of the government news it claims authority over—and that Elmer Davis would have to have a showdown sooner or later. This may be it."

D. C. Speaker added: "I admit I don't know when this one will break into the open, but I'll make a guess it will be within a few days."

A staff of at least eight instructors is being supplied to care for an enrollment of 70 or more pupils. The school is open to all, and children wishing to attend should report before 8:30 a. m. Study periods each day will be from 8:30 to 11:15 a. m.

RECRUITERS HERE FRIDAY

PFC Edward B. Prendergast, Army recruiting officer, will be at the post office Friday from 10 o'clock in the morning until 5 o'clock in the afternoon to furnish information about the new procedure for enlisting aviation cadets.

Three WAACs will also be at the post office at the same time to interview women between the ages of 21 and 44 who are interested in joining the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps. WAAC applicants must have two years of high school or its equivalent.

The visit of the Army recruiting officer is in line with an intensified drive now being conducted to secure aviation cadets.

All men, between the ages of 17 and 26, married or single, who are in good health are eligible. Men with grade school or high school educations are treated on the same basis as college men.

Qualified aviation cadet applicants who have not reached their eighteenth birthday will be placed in the Air Force Enlisted Reserve and will be called to active duty within six months of reaching 18.

Those between the ages of 18 and 26 may apply provided they have not been called for induction by their local draft boards.

Offer Appointments For WAAC Prospects

Adams county girls who are interested in enrolling in the Women's Army Auxiliary Corps and who are unable to meet with recruiting officers at the Gettysburg post office building here on Fridays, may make special appointments for evenings or Sundays by mail with the York recruiting office, Corporal Lola Mae Harvey of the York office staff said today.

Corporal Harvey said interested girls and women may come to York at times convenient to them for their mental alertness test or recruiting officers will come here to give the test. "It is not an intelligence test," Miss Harvey said, "but simply tests reactions. No applicant is expected to answer all of the questions. The test is explained carefully before the one-hour examination is started."

Recruiters are at the Gettysburg post office each Friday from 10 a. m. to 4:30 p. m.

FIGHT LOOMS OVER OWI AND OPA FINANCES

Washington, June 17 (AP) — A battle over the 1944 financial allowances for the Office of War Information and the Office of Price Administration shaped up in the House today as debate opened on the $2,921,441,504 appropriations bill carrying funds for 18 governmental war agencies.

Republican lawmakers privately served notice they would attempt to slash the allocations of both war-borne bureaus, and possibly others, with the likelihood the ensuing controversy would develop into the longest fight of the 78th Congress over an appropriations bill.

May Balk Reeces Both Republican and Democratic legislative spokesmen conceded that the argument over the omnibus fiscal measure might stretch to the point where it could interfere with a summer recess scheduled to start July 10.

Meanwhile, the House awaited arrival late this week of a $72,000,000 appropriation measure for the 1944 War department expenses, a record-smashing bill calling for twice this country's entire outlay for World War I.

The House yesterday passed and sent to the Senate a $1,068,059,499 supply bill for the Labor department, the Federal Security agency and the War Manpower commission, after refusing a $3,000 salary increase for Manpower Commissioner Paul V. McNutt.

Cardinals And Brooklyn Beaten; Senators Humble New York Yankees

PHILLIES TAKE THIRD CONTEST FROM BOSTON

By JUDSON BAILEY

The Associated Press

Major league players will break a leg to make good on their first appearance with a new club.

At least Danny Litwhiler ran right into a wall at Sportsman's park in his debut with the world champion St. Louis Cardinals after being traded by the Phillies and other players have shown just as strong an urge.

Connie Ryan, the day after he was traded to the Boston Braves by the New York Giants, hit the first home run of his major league career to beat his former teammates. Coaker Triplett bowed before his new followers at Philadelphia with a home run and a triple that beat the Braves.

Rookie Beats Bums

There were even a couple of new chapters yesterday.

Rube Fischer, the rugged, right-handed pitcher whom the Giants had just brought up from their Jersey City farm in the International league, was ordered out onto the mound at the Polo Grounds against the Giants' bitter rivals, the Brooklyn Dodgers, and proceeded to pitch a seven-hit victory, 3-2, with the help of a two-run homer by his manager, Mel Ott.

At the same time Babe Barna, a promising slugger whose batting average was insignificant with the Giants, donned a Boston Red Sox uniform, hit a ninth-inning double and scored the deciding run to give Yank Terry a 3-2 decision over the Philadelphia Athletics.

The Dodgers' loss was their third in a row, longest losing streak of the season for Brooklyn, but it did not cost them any additional ground in the National league pennant chase because the Cardinals also were beaten 4-1 in 11 innings by the Cincinnati Reds.

Reds Beat Cards

Johnny Vander Meer and Howie Pollet hooked up in a lefthanded hurling duel in which each allowed only four hits and one run for ten innings. Then the Reds made four hits in the top half of the 11th, including a two-run double by Eddie Miller, to sew up the victory.

The Phillies took their third straight from the Braves 2-0 with St. Johnson pitching masterful three-hit ball in spite of the fact that the game was interrupted for 41 minutes by a practice blackout in Philadelphia.

The Pittsburgh Pirates opened with a three-run blast in the first inning and whipped the Chicago Cubs 5-2.

The games at St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Philadelphia were all night contests and in addition the Washington Senators turned back the New York Yankees, American league leaders, under the floodlights of Griffith Stadium.

Browns, Sox Split

The Senators were held to six hits, but rookie Tommy Byrne had a spell of wildness in the eighth that helped them rally for five runs to win 8-3.

The St. Louis Browns and Chicago White Sox split a doubleheader, the Sox dropping the first 5-2 and

SPORTS ROUNDUP

By HUGH FULLERTON, JR.

New York, June 17 (AP)—Since that celebrated war bond auction of baseball players, the fans have acquired some new material to burn the umpires' ears. . . . Mel Ott contributed a $5,000 double and a $10,000 homer against the Dodgers Tuesday before Larry Goetz chased him out of the game for a two-bit protest. . . . You can imagine some of the things the patriotic customers called Larry. . . . Charles Ornstein, AAU bigwig and a local hotelman, refused to have any part of that $10,000 a page advertising in the program for the national track championships, but he bought $150 worth of tickets and sent them to Hal-loran hospital, where a lot of boys are recuperating from wounds received in north Africa.

GLOBAL THINKING?

Question overheard in the Marine barracks at the Naval Operating Base, Norfolk, Virginia, during the Beau Jack-Bob Montgomery fight broadcast: "How can the New York state commission rule who is world champion when their part of the world is limited by the boundaries of New York state?" . . . The answer, of course, is that officially the commission only rules whose title claim it will accept, but that carries a lot of weight with guys whose world is limited to West 49th street.

SCRAP COLLECTION

Tip: Lew Fonseca, former American league batting champion, says that one reason why the hitters improve after July 4 is that during the hot months the pitchers lose some of their stuff during the late innings while batters seldom tire. . . . Mike Jacobs won't admit he has given up on the afternoon fight idea. He'll revive it if he gets a big enough attraction to fill the Polo Grounds or Yankee Stadium. . . . One reason why the NCAA decided to hold the National Intercollegiate tennis meet next week, although the field will be mostly midwestern, is that is the oldest tournament on the list except the national singles and doubles.

Lefty George Beats Lancaster 1 To 0

(By The Associated Press)

The Wilmington Blue Rocks may—and do—have a 3½ game lead in the Interstate league but they don't seem to have more than a one-run margin over the struggling last-place Allentown club.

It took a two-run ninth inning to give the Rocks a 9-8 decision last night. Wilmington also trimmed Allentown by a single run the night before.

Hagerstown registered four double plays in shutting out Trenton, 5-0, but the Packers came back to win, 7-4, with a four-run seventh inning rally in the nightcap.

York and Lancaster also split, York winning the starter 1-0, behind the three-hit pitching of Lefty George, and Lancaster taking the nightcap, 3-2.

Coast Eligibility Grid Rules Widened

San Francisco, June 17 (AP)—Almost anyone may play football in the Pacific Coast conference this year.

Freshmen and graduate students, transfers and regulars, and any man enrolled in army or navy training programs in conference schools—all will be welcomed on the gridiron.

Somer strictions on civilian eligibility were retained, however, by faculty athletic representatives of the conference who adopted, at a meeting concluded here yesterday, a wartime emergency policy.

JAP

I'll say this of the wily Jap:
His national disgrace is
That he is just a two-faced chap
Who'll never save both faces.

BLOSSOMS

'Tis good to have a little plot
Edged brightly with forget-me-not
And other dainty bits of bloom
To compensate for war-time gloom.

NAZIS

The blustering Nazis strut about
When proudly dish out torture out,
But, overpowered, they meekly quit:
They have no heart for taking it.

Three traits there are that mark
The man:
His will to do the best he can;
His patience under stress and strain;
His pity for his fellows' pain.

By George Matthew Adams

COMFORT

The world is ablaze with war, and sacrifices are being made by millions of human beings beyond the ability of anyone to compute. Why? That the humblest may have reasonable comfort, and the opportunity to live out his life usefully and happily.

The masses of the world desire no more than to be given the opportunity to do just this. They want the chance to earn a decent wage, sufficient to keep themselves and families happy and healthy, and enough left over to give to them the comfort that they merit. If this objective is not reached the tremendous sacrifices now being made, throughout the world, will have been in vain. A peace that does not assure this will become only a makeshift and a delusion.

The mothers of the world, and the women yet to become mothers, should have a voice in any discussion and plan for a permanent peace. They have no voice in the declaration of war, and the gift of their first-born is presented to the world, their supreme thought is for the health and comfort of that one.

There is another comfort about which human beings are deeply concerned—the comfort of religion. The right to have this comfort, to worship in one's own way, and to gain the solace that results, is inherent in every human being, no matter where born, and no matter what color of skin he may have.

To make the ill comfortable, to comfort the discouraged, or the one in sorrow, is an opportunity given to us all. In so doing, we comfort ourselves. The Creator had a perfect plan in mind when he created various types of human beings, and various colors of skin. He never meant that one group should organize to kill the other. He made this a One World in which he hoped that each would work toward the happiness of all. Economical and political selfishness is what has caused all wars.

Joy and comfort to the many will never be reached as a universal program of life until the world's leaders recognize the eternal values that point to the simple rules of conduct and living as exemplified in the teachings of Christ. And "love thy neighbor as thyself" if applied, would bring about a changed world! A world that would be eternally free.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "The Stay-At-Home Mind."

New Nation-Wide Shutdown Of Coal Mines Hinted

NEWEST TRUCE
TO END SUNDAY
AT MIDNIGHT

Washington, June 17 (AP)—The War Labor Board (WLB) tried to reach a vote late today on the crucial portal-to-portal pay issue in the soft coal wage dispute while members of the United Mine Workers murmured threats of a new nationwide shutdown next Monday unless their demands were satisfied.

Some members of the UMW policy committee, after a session of more than three hours yesterday, said suggestions were made to hold district conventions on the strike question with the objective of relieving President John L. Lewis of responsibility if another tieup of the coal mines develops and the President signs the anti-strike bill. The current extension of the truce declared by the UMW leadership expires Sunday midnight.

Ask $1.30 Boost
Policy committee members said Lewis has fixed $1.30 a day as the absolute minimum settlement which he would accept for travel time. The committee was to reconvene at 4 p. m. today.

The WLB, it was learned, had been far from unanimity and considered awards ranging up to 80 cents a day. A refusal to award any sum of money for underground travel would constitute a decision to let the case go to court if the miners felt they had a case under the fair labor standards act.

An award of 80 cents a day would be based on travel time of 48 minutes at straight time working rates, which basically are $1 an hour. The only government survey of travel time made six years ago, shows 48 minutes as the average. Lewis contends it is at least 90 minutes.

80c Minimum
One member cautioned against any prediction, except that 80 cents a day was the extreme maximum which could be expected and even that was unlikely. This amount, with the concessions already granted by the board, would add up to about $1 a day.

Some of the WLB public members were reported authoritatively to have suggested for consideration a formula based on the fair labor standards act which would permit a payment of $1.02 a week.

Lay Jury Will Pass On Sanity

Philadelphia, June 17 (AP)—Laymen, not alienists, will pass on the sanity of Pvt. Sidney Bullen Dunn, Jr., 27, who is charged with aggravated assault and battery with intent to kill in the stabbing of Miss Margherita Clement, former Powers model, during a hotel party May 1.

When a lay jury was impaneled this morning it will be the first time in approximately 20 years that a body of laymen has tested a person's sanity in open court, officials said.

Judge Vincent A. Carroll directed Tuesday that the jury be impaneled. Rejecting a plea of Dunn's mother, Mrs. Dora A. Dunn of Haverford, he said he did not think it was necessary for the commonwealth to go to the expense of appointing a sanity commission.

Pastors Told To Build Home Front

State College, Pa., June 17 (AP)—Professor F. E. John of the Pennsylvania State college told 130 rural pastors attending conferences here that "unless we wake up and build a second home front, democracy in the United States will be lost."

Asserting Americans "have" lost resourcefulness in meeting their own needs and problems," John said the current trend toward centralization must be checked by the people.

mentement are Dr. and Mrs. David Dale and daughter of Bellefonte; William L. McPherson and daughters, Janet and Jessie, of New York city, and John B. McPherson, of Brookline, Massachusetts.

Mr. and Mrs. Guile Lelever and son, "Bobbie," North Stratton street, are spending a week in Harrisburg.

John D. Keith, Esq., and children, Nancy and Laddie, have returned from a trip to Lincoln, Nebraska.

Patrons rushed for the door.
The snake—lost from the arm of a neighborhood herb salesman whose pet it was—still is missing.

BUSINESS, NO PLEASURE

He told police he had playfully fastened his wrist watch on his girl's ankle—then forgot to remove it, and hasn't seen her since.

The "please," he said, brought two applicants the very first day.

Portland, Ore. (AP)—William Hatley, Jr., head of the local offices of the U. S. Secret Service, arrived in January and since has tracked down several counterfeiters and other wrongdoers.
Only yesterday, though, did he succeed in tracking down a vacant house in which to live.

Exonerate Two On Ceiling Charges

Philadelphia, June 17 (AP)—Cleared of charges that they violated price ceiling regulations, Hyman M. Marder and Louis L. Malickson sought to establish in U. S. District court today that they were innocent of the remaining charge against them—dealing in what Federal agents called a state-wide "black market" of more than 5,000 automobile tires early this year.

Judge J. Cullen Ganey granted a defense motion yesterday that the price violation charge be dropped against the former Philadelphia salesmen for lack of proof. He rejected, however, a motion that a rationing violation charge be dropped, telling the jury it must decide whether the men acted as dealers or as agents in the alleged sales.

FDR EXPECTED TO NAME TRIO
ON WAR SPORTS

Washington, June 17 (AP)—President Roosevelt was reported by a prominent sports figure today to have decided on appointing a committee of one civilian and one representative each from the Army and Navy to attempt a solution of the war-born problems confronting organized sports.

This source, who asked to remain anonymous, said he had been told that the civilian under consideration was a man more closely identified in the past with political than sports circles.

Make Recommendations
The function of the trio, he said, would be to provide an official ear for the wartime complaints of the sporting world and to make recommendations to the President on what could be done to keep athletics going until Victory.

News of the committee-to-be followed organization yesterday of a federally-sponsored group to develop and promote a thoroughgoing program of physical fitness throughout the nation, with a special view to building up youth to meet draft standards and keeping war workers in top shape.

Its creator, Paul V. McNutt, who controls Selective Service as War Manpower commissioner, is in excellent position to deal with sports' biggest wartime trouble—the loss of manpower to the draft—but members said the committee would ask no special draft deferment for athletes.

Sports Group
Representing professional sports on the committee is George M. Trautman, president of baseball's American association, while the colleges are represented by Asa Bushnell, Ivy league chief, and John L. Griffith, the Big Ten commissioner. The McNutt-appointed committee is headed by John B. Kelly of Philadelphia, former single-skill champion and physical culture enthusiast.

Tells Of Postwar Plan For Conquered

Pittsburgh, June 17 (AP)—An American military government will be in charge of territories recaptured from the Axis by the United States forces, probably over a longer period of time than the U.S. military governments lasted in Cuba, the Philippines and the Rhineland, the Municipal Finance Officers association was told Tuesday night.

"But this time we will not be unprepared but in a position to shoulder the great responsibilities which America must carry," Lieut. Col. Joseph P. Harris, staff member of the War department's school of military government at Charlottesville, Va., assured his listeners.

The military regime will be designed to enable occupied territories to become self-sufficient and to help them to "build up their resources and productive capacities as a source of support in our war upon aggression," he declared.

More than 300 delegates from municipalities in the United States and Canada are attending the association's 38th annual conference, which ends tomorrow.

OPA HOUSE TO GET CLEANING

Washington, June 17 (AP)—Price Administrator Prentiss M. Brown squared his jaw Wednesday and announced he was setting out "to clean up the mess people think OPA is in."

His chief problems were personnel and food prices. The personnel question he hoped to iron out in about a week. The food question, laden with the political and economic dynamite of such things as subsidies, margins, chain versus independent competition, may take a while longer.

Back from a 10-day vacation in Michigan, where he went to think through all the controversy that surrounds the Office of Prime Administration, Brown declined, in a brief interview, to foreshadow specific actions. But he made it plain he had made up his mind about certain things.

NEW AUDIBLE SIGNAL MAY BE ADOPTED

Philadelphia, June 17 (AP)—The audible signal for the end of an air raid alert may return soon to all of Pennsylvania.

A test in Philadelphia, Bucks, Montgomery, Delaware and Chester counties last night was reported "satisfactory" to Dr. Ralph C. Hutchison, executive director of the State Council of Defense, by the Philadelphia Council of Defense.

Judge Harry S. McDevitt, executive director of the Philadelphia group, said the Third Service command, which authorized the experimental five-county test, probably would be asked to approve a similar state-wide test.

Decorated For Hazardous Flight

London, June 17 (AP)—Flying Officer F. M. Fisher, of Lewistown, Pa., a pilot in the RAF, was awarded the Distinguished Flying Cross today for his part in the 1,000-mile daylight raid on the Zeiss Optical Works in Jena, Germany, May 25.

Four others also were decorated for the operation which the official citation said "called for a high degree of skill and necessitated a flight over strongly defended areas and difficult terrain."

P. M. (EWT) was heard almost everywhere in the area involved, McDewitt said, and lights flickered on slowly after 41 minutes of darkness.

Radio announcements, which have been used in place of the audible all-clear during the past five months, announced the end of the blackout in areas beyond the reach of sirens. One Delaware county Civilian Defense group complained that the radio announcement preceded the siren blast by a minute and a half. The blackout interrupted a Shibe Park baseball game between the Phillies and the Boston Braves. Most of the crowd of approximately 6,000 remained in their seats and joined in community singing. A few who lighted cigarettes in violation of blackout regulations were booted.

Workers Ride At Johnstown Again

Johnstown, Pa., June 17 (AP)—War workers and others in this busy industrial center travelled normally to and from their jobs Wednesday for the first time this week, with the ending of a bus and trolley operators' strike.

Three hundred members of the AFL, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway and Motor Coach Employees voted late Tuesday to halt their walkout, pending outcome of an appeal to the War Labor Board for reconsideration of their wage demands.

Uncle Sam Speaking...

Food may tip the scales for victory or defeat. Over 15 per cent of the first million men called under Selective Service were unfit for service due to poor nutrition. The production and safety record of war workers are linked to the food they eat. The shortage of medical care makes good nutrition increasingly important as a first line of health defense. America will produce the food. Rationing has been adopted to provide all with their share. To help every family make the most of that share to see that they know how to utilize available food for health, and how to choose alternate foods if some are limited—that is the reason, the need, for our National War-time Nutrition Program, which is simply a list of Seven Basic Foods, some of which you should eat every day to keep your family's health up to par. These Basic 7 are—

1. Green and Yellow Vegetables
2. Oranges, Tomatoes, Grapefruit
3. Potatoes and other Vegetables and Fruits
4. Milk, Cheese, other Dairy Products
5. Meat, Poultry, Fish and Eggs
6. Bread, Flour and Cereals
7. Butter and Fortified Margarine

BANKERS URGED

uncalled for difficulty is now being faced by all members of the Federal Reserve system. This difficulty is inherent in the policies and methods of the present bank supervisory authorities. Unreasonable and unjustified appraisals of loans by bank examiners, and their insistence that perfectly sound loans be amortized, tends to frustrate the best efforts of bank management. Bankers are harassed by the rapidly changing standards and uncalled for requirements of the supervisory authorities and the apparent desire of the examiners to criticize. When a bank tries to cooperate with the examiners and yields to the policies of the Banking department, the result, frequently, is a drastic reduction in revenue which places the bank in an embarrassing position both with its stockholders and its depositors.

"When this stage is reached insult is added to injury. The Banking Department advances the argument that the bank's management is incompetent and should be replaced.

Rule of Bureaucrats

"While these unbusinesslike policies are being followed, resulting in too rapid liquidation of loans and rejection of many sound loan applications various governmental agencies operated in large part by bureaucrats and frequently subsidized by the Federal government are using every device to obtain loans that rightfully belong to local banks. Because of government subsidies and loose policies of some of these Federal loan agencies, banks operated on private capital, and restricted in their loaning activities by an arm of the Federal government, are unable to meet this unfair competition. They must stand by, unable to help themselves and witness the loss of much good business which is rightfully theirs.

"The socialists and paternalistic methods of the present regime in Washington are well recognized and it is needless to say that the banks and bankers have not been overlooked in the program.

"To survive banks must organize and fight all encroachments from any source with every means at their command and they will have to meet competition with every means and method available.

Bankers Challenged

"The intelligence, skill and ingenuity of all bankers are being challenged as never before.

"It appears that the welfare of the individual bank is being subordinated by the supervisory authorities to some vague, indefinable national planning, and that the bankers will have to fight their own battles. The supervisory authorities apparently have succumbed to the socialist schemes of the New Deal planners.

"That these plans are of doubtful value to the economy as a whole and distinctly harmful to the individual bank cannot be questioned.

"This is not government by law, but by the whim and dictum of persons who, in many cases, are exceeding their statutory authority."

Mr. Taylor spoke on "Let's Keep America Solvent." He pointed out that while no one objected to government expenditures for war—they do object to wasteful spending for non-war projects.

Warned of Evils

He told of warnings given 40 years ago by senators of the wastefulness of bureaucracy and then claimed that "bureaucracy is writing the laws today. It is the evils that have crept into our government and not our government we are fighting," he said.

He pointed out that from 75 to 100 million dollars a year are wasted to print some 900 farmers' bulletins and that most of the copies of the bulletins are of use to no one. Not only are enough copies made for farmers but each congressman, whether he represents a farm district or not is given 3,000 copies of each bulletin. Most congressmen simply destroy the piles of bulletins as they take up too much space in their offices, Mr. Taylor said.

"The war we wage today is a challenge to the fiber, intelligence and courage of free Americans and their devotion to those institutions which we have always regarded as being characteristically American," the speaker pointed out in claiming that an attempt is being made by the government's planners to use the war as an excuse for hoisting socialism on the American people.

50 Bankers Present

The People's State bank of East Berlin will be in charge of the July meeting of the bankers group. About 50 bankers and their ladies attended Wednesday evening's session.

Miss Elizabeth Starnier, daughter of Mrs. Ruth O. Starnier, Bendersville, and a graduate of Penn Hall Conservatory of Music, Chambersburg, presented a number of selections accompanied at the piano by Mrs. O. D. Coble. Her numbers included, "Londonderry Air," "Weatherly," "Sing a Song of Sixpence," "Fraser-Simpson," "Mon coeur s'ouvre a ta voix," from Samson and Delilah, "Saint Saens" and "My Lady," Thayer.

42,000 War Jobs Ready For Women

Harrisburg, June 17 (AP)—More than 42,000 jobs in important Pennsylvania war plants are waiting for the right woman to come along and H. Raymond Mason, state director of the U. S. Employment Service, said today the posts must be filled in the next three months to keep production at high tempo.

Mason said the openings, covering all types of jobs, were listed by employers in 20 key areas. Philadelphia, Pittsburgh, Erie, Lancaster and Reading, in that order, seek the greatest number with Harrisburg, Greensburg, Williamsport, Uniontown, Scranton, Altoona and other war production centers also clamoring for female employees.

When Bowels

Refuse To Move Easily—Watch Out!

Forcing! Straining!—a Common Cause of Hemorrhoids—Here's Easy Quick Way to Moisture Hard Dry Passages

When because of constipation you wake up mornings feeling half sick, headachy with a stomach that rebels at food, tongue coated, bad breath, upset and "out-of-sorts"—bowel movement an effort—you want relief and you want it fast.

In a glass of hot water put one teaspoonful of Kruschen Salts and drink. 15 to 20 minutes later follow with your usual breakfast cup of hot coffee or tea. Moisture is promptly fed into the hard, dry wastes, softening them so they can be more gently and easily expelled. Usually within 30 minutes you get glorious relief and should begin to feel bright and refreshed again.

Take only as directed. Try Kruschen for 5 days—for you can so regulate the dose as to bring about that "easy" movement such as you have long desired. Don't delay—get Kruschen Salts for prompt and effective relief from forcing and straining. Ask for it today at any drug store.

Alexandria, Va., June 17 (AP)—The safe arrival in England of 72 more Red Cross workers, to augment the staff already there, was announced today by eastern area headquarters of the American Red Cross.

Altoona, Pa., June 17 (AP)—Coroner C. C. Rothrock said Warren D. Bayett of Macy, Indiana, was killed by a train in the railroad yards here last night.

Martin Attacks Economic Fascists

Philadelphia, June 17 (AP)—"Economic Fascists" in Washington are planning to create "a race of faceless, sheltered, docile Americans, willing to give up every right except the right to live, in exchange for a false security," says Pennsylvania's Governor Martin.

The Republican Chief Executive

charged in a Flag Day address at Independence Hall that the report of the National Resources Planning Board is "the holy book of the new American order" and that it proposes "the system whereby our economic Fascists hope to control every step taken by Americans from their cradles to their graves."

"These powerful groups of politico-social planners," Martin declared, "plan to use our wartime economy as the pattern for a peacetime economy." He added that the "economic Fascists wish, in collaboration with similar-minded groups in other countries . . . a regimentation of the globe."

"There is a battle coming," the Governor said, "between those who believe in the doctrine of a Christian civilization and the cynical, Godless group who . . . hold that we should follow the doctrine of the supremacy of economic man."

SHOOTING OF FIVE WORKMEN BEING PROBED

Chester, Pa., June 17 (AP)—The shooting of five workmen at the No. 4 yard of the Sun Shipbuilding and Drydock Corp. was under investigation today by the Navy, the U. S. Conciliation Service and the Delaware county district attorney's office.

The Fourth Naval District said in a statement that four guards, members of the Coast Guard temporary reserve but paid by the company, were held in custody pending the investigation. A man booked as Edward Abrams, negro, of Wilmington, Del., was released in $3,000 bail, meanwhile, on a charge of inciting to riot.

CIO Organizer
Eddystone Police Chief Michael Driscoll said the man was an organizer for the CIO industrial union of Marine and Shipbuilding Workers of America. The Navy did not make public the names of the guards but said they, like the men who were shot, are negroes.

The Navy's version of the occurrence, said by the company's vice president, John G. Pew, Jr., to be substantially correct, was that "several shots were fired" in a "melee" when guards sought to remove a worker who lacked an identification badge.

William Bell, a CIO organizer who said he saw the shootings, declared, however, that the disturbance started when a guard, after ordering a group of workers to end a discussion in the yard cafeteria, slapped one of the men. The men "might have been discussing" a National Labor Relations Board election scheduled for June 30, he said.

One Is Critical
Condition of one of the workers, Roger Hope, 24, of Philadelphia, was described at Chester hospital as critical. The others, none seriously injured, were Frank Giddings, 24, and Edward Collier, 33, of Philadelphia; William Smith, 21, of Chester; and Wiley Yawwood, 34, of Pleasantville, N. J.

Joseph P. Burge, regional director of the union, which has been conducting a membership campaign at the yard, said none of the five was a member.

NEW DESTROYER

Wilmington, Del., June 17 (AP)—The destroyer escort Christopher, named for a young Illinois officer killed in the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor, will be launched Saturday at the Dravo Corporation shipyards, the Navy announced today.

Appreciation

I want to express my grateful appreciation and thanks to the Gettysburg Borough Council for the splendid and fair consideration given my case and for reinstating me in my borough position of Street Commissioner. I also wish to express my thanks to my many friends for their loyal support. I will make every effort to prove myself worthy of the confidence shown in me.
